Welcome To EduSphere

Welcome to EduSphere - Your Gateway to Engineering Excellence!

!! Bridging Imagination and Education !!

At EduSphere, we believe in the transformative power of books. From textbooks to advanced tech tools, our platform caters to the evolving landscape of engineering and technology. We're your premier online destination, dedicated to fueling academic growth and professional excellence. Join us in this journey of knowledge and innovation, tailored to elevate your engineering pursuits and aspirations.

Explore Our Extensive Collection:

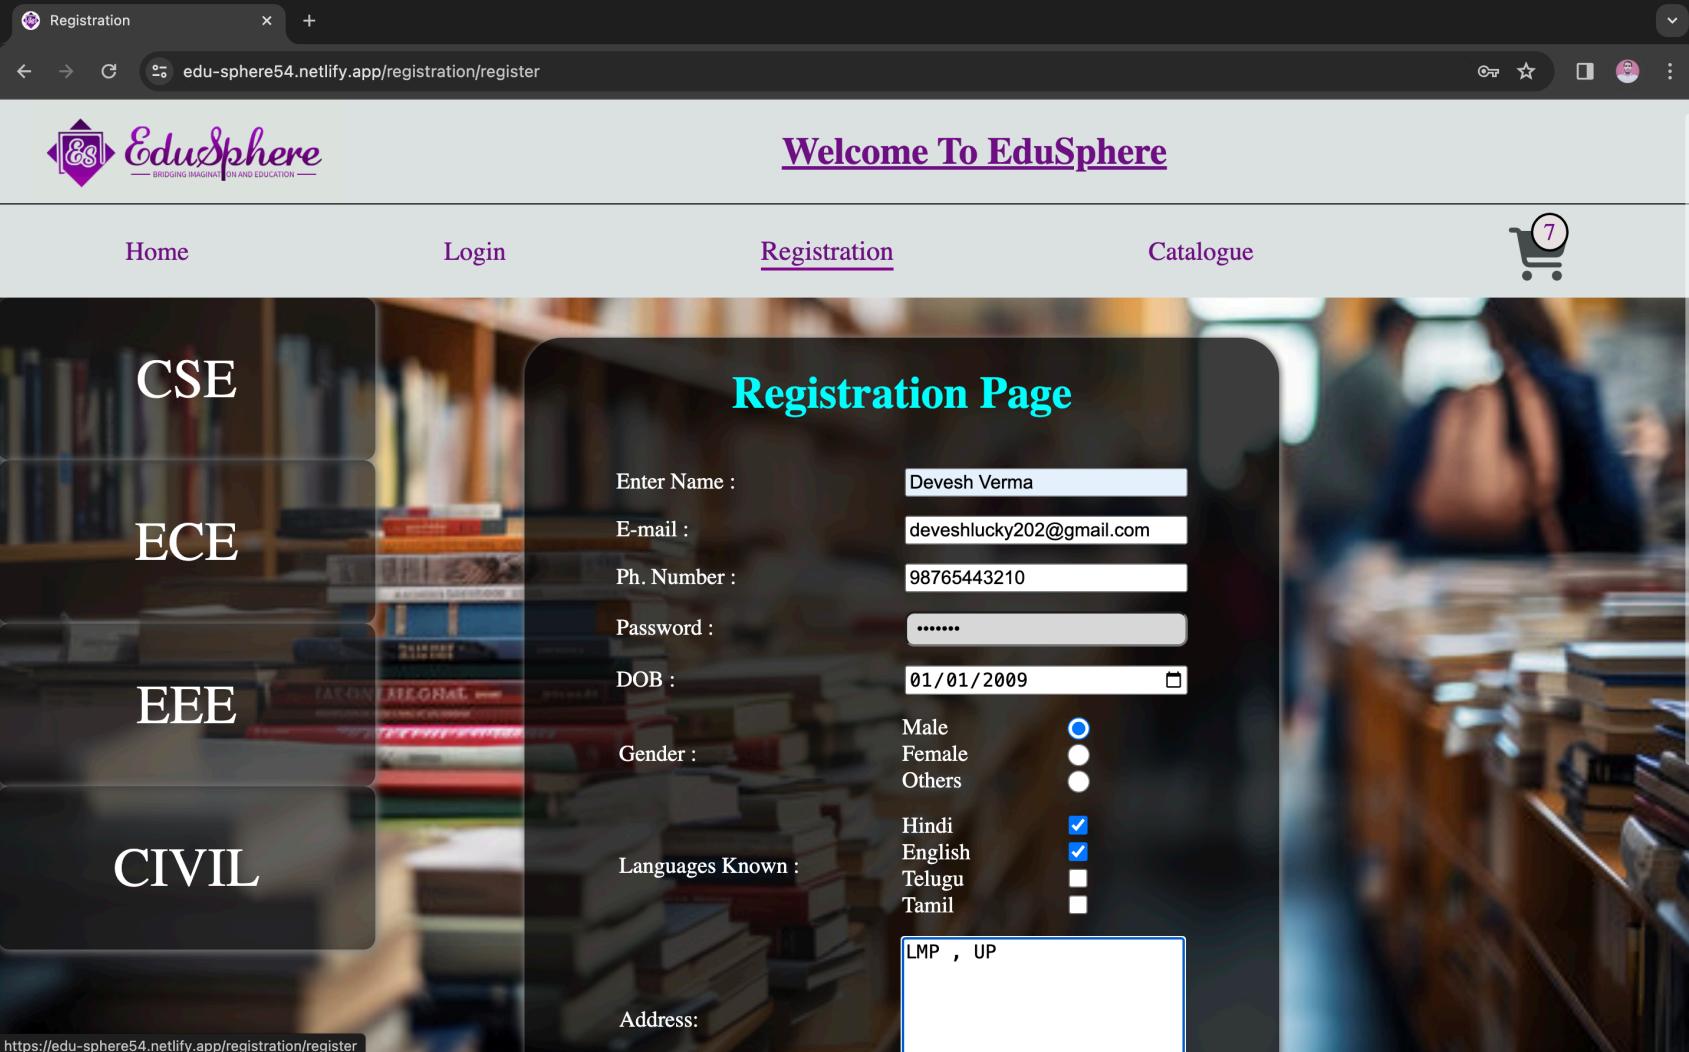

Dive into our curated collection of engineering books covering a diverse spectrum of disciplines. From electrical and mechanical engineering to computer science, civil engineering, and beyond, our repository houses the latest publications, timeless references, and cutting-edge resources to meet your academic and professional needs.

Empower Your Learning:

Enhance your understanding and mastery of engineering principles with our comprehensive selection of textbooks, reference materials, and specialized guides. Whether you're a student delving into the fundamentals or a seasoned professional seeking

Registration Page

The screenshot shows a web browser window for the EduSphere registration page. The URL in the address bar is <https://edu-sphere54.netlify.app/registration/register>. The page features a header with the EduSphere logo and the text "Welcome To EduSphere". Below the header, there are navigation links for Home, Login, Registration (which is underlined to indicate it's the active page), and Catalogue. A shopping cart icon with a notification count of 7 is also present. On the left side of the main content area, there are four engineering discipline labels: CSE, ECE, EEE, and CIVIL, each overlaid on a background image of books. The main form is titled "Registration Page" and contains fields for Name, Email, Phone Number, Password, DOB, Gender, Languages Known, and Address. The "Name" field has "Devesh Verma" entered, and the "Email" field has "deveshlucky202@gmail.com". The "Phone Number" field has "98765443210". The "Password" field is masked. The "DOB" field has "01/01/2009" selected. The "Gender" section shows "Male" selected with a blue radio button. The "Languages Known" section lists "Hindi" (checked), "English" (checked), "Telugu" (unchecked), and "Tamil" (unchecked). The "Address" field contains "LMP , UP". The footer of the page displays the same registration URL.
